

Some Stamps on Combinatorial Geometry

Ferran Hurtado
Departament de Matemàtica Aplicada II
Universitat Politècnica de Catalunya
SPAIN

February 10, 2004

The consideration of several features of geometric objects, like number, size, shape or color, generates a wealth of combinatorial problems. In this lecture we present a collection of "small" combinatorial geometry problems, the results we have obtained and some open problems as well.